Executive Proclamation
Office of the Governor

Whereas, South Dakota was established by people with hard work, perseverance, and dedication to duty to provide for their families and their fellow man; and,

Whereas, Roy Dennis Stone, Sr. worked for the Todd County School District for 24 years, St. Francis Indian School for 4 years, Indian Health Service for 7 years, and most recently the Rosebud Sioux Tribe for the past 7 years; and,

Whereas, Roy is a Spiritual Leader who has traveled throughout the United States unselfishly giving of his time to help people in need; and,

Whereas, Roy has made himself available day or night to respond to the needs of the people of the Rosebud Reservation, as well as other tribes within South Dakota; and,

Whereas, Roy is an honored elder of the Rosebud Reservation, and for his 42 years of public service to the people of this state, it is fitting and proper as Governor to recognize the many accomplishments and years of service of this special South Dakotan:

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim January 28, 2008, as in South Dakota, and I join his colleagues, family, and friends in wishing him good health and happiness in his well deserved retirement.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-fourth Day of January in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Eight.

M. Michael Rounds, Governor

Attest:

Chris Nelson, Secretary of State
